HOW TO BECOME A CHRISTIAN

Jesus Christ, the Son of God, died for us and rose from the dead, making salvation available as a gift (John 3:16; Romans 6:23). In order to benefit from this great sacrificial love, one must receive God's grace through faith in Christ and obedience to him (Romans 5:1-2; Hebrews 5:9). To become a Christian, the Bible teaches that we must believe in and put our trust in Christ (John 8:24), turn away from a life of sin (Luke 13:3), confess Jesus as Lord (Romans 10:9-10), and be baptized for the forgiveness of sins (Acts 2:38; 22:16). If you would like to further study this question of "What must I do to be saved?", please see our minister or one of our elders.

NEVERTHELESS AT YOUR WORD I WILL

By David Sproule

When you've been doing something your way for so long and have all but perfected it in your own way, for someone to tell you to do it differently may not always sit so well. Imagine being a fisherman and you've fished all night and caught nothing, and then a carpenter comes along and tells you how to fish. Would you listen? That's exactly what happened in Luke 5, but that carpenter was Jesus Christ. He told the disciples, "Launch out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch" (5:4). While they had been fishing all night (in the way that they knew as professional fishermen to do) but with no success, look at Peter's words: "...nevertheless at Your word I will let down the net" (5:5).

Do you ever think you might know better? Better than Jesus? Do you have (have you had) your way of doing something? When the Master Carpenter of Life gives us instructions, may we have the heart that looks at our way of doing it and then says, "Nevertheless at Your Word I will!"

AN ANSWER FOR THE ANXIETY

By Ronald Sanders, Jr.

Main Text: (Matthew 6:19-34)

SUPPORTING TEXT:

(1 Timothy 6:7) For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

(1 Timothy 6:17) Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy;

(Luke 12:20) But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?

(1 Peter 1:4) To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you,

(Colossians 3:2) Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

(Philippians 4:6) Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

(Philippians 4:7) And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

(1 Peter 5:7) Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

(Colossians 3:15) And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful.

(Luke 8:14) And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

(Psalm 37:25) I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread.

(James 1:17) Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

(Galatians 6:10) As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.
